Floyd County 4-H News

State 4-H Roundup

This year was an exciting year for Floyd County 4-H at State 4-H Roundup. We had one competitor, 2 scholarship recipients, and a State Council Officer.

Rachel Graham competed on Thursday, June 14th with her Promote 4-H Educational Presentation. She received 3rd place at State and was able to walk the stage at the Assembly that night to receive her award.

Alex Glass and Rachel Graham both received 4-H scholarships at Roundup this year. Alex received a $20,000 Houston Livestock Show Scholarship and Rachel received a $10,000 Richard Wallrath Educational Fund Scholarship. They attended the banquets the evening before with their parents and then walked the stage at the assemblies in order to receive these prestigious honors.

Rachel also attended Roundup as a State Council Officer where she helped run the show for the entire week and then turned over the coveted green jacket at the end of the convention.

It was a great week for Floyd County 4-H at Texas 4-H Roundup. We appreciate all the parents and leaders who supported us and helped us get there! Please congratulate Rachel and Alex when you see them!

- 2019 County Stock Show Judge will be Dr. Andy Hart, he is the District 2 4-H Specialist.
- Be on the lookout late summer/early fall for raffle information. ALL livestock exhibitors will be required to sell raffle tickets this year.
- Floyd County 4-H will have the concession stand this year at the County Stock Show. All hands on deck (including non livestock families) will be needed as we don't have an FCS Agent anymore to help run the stand and the money made goes to ALL of 4-H, not just livestock projects.
